ABOUT

Hi, I'm Nicolas

To capture your wedding as faithfully as possible, adapting to each couple's style: that's the promise I've kept since 2010.

I started out in 2010 and have since filmed over 200 weddings. Out of season, I work in extreme sports — kitesurfing and wingfoiling — as a videographer for the French Sailing Federation. Two different worlds, one same requirement: being in the right place to catch the moment.

I favour discretion. Thanks to telephoto lenses, I film from a distance so emotions stay natural: a shared glance, laughter backstage, a father's hand trembling just slightly.

HOW I WORK

What makes the difference

Discretion

On a tripod with a telephoto lens, I film from a distance: emotions stay natural.

The steadycam

This stabiliser lets me follow you as you move, with smooth, steady footage.

Lighting

In the evening, an on-camera light keeps your dances sharp and bright.

Sound

Speeches and music recorded at the source, straight from the amp, then enriched with ambient sound.

Editing

Pacing, titles, emotion and celebration balanced for a film you'll watch again and again.

Drone

Included in every package, it shows the scale of your venue without ever disturbing your guests.

WHAT YOU RECEIVE

Two films, two ways to relive the day

The short film

Your wedding told in around ten minutes, with the feel of a real film: pace, music, emotion.

The behind-the-scenes film

About 90 minutes gathering all the key moments: ceremony, speeches, dancing… so nothing is lost.

A TEAM YOU CAN TRUST

What if we added photography?

More and more couples want a complete record of their wedding, in both photo and video. Rather than adding more unfamiliar faces on the day, I work in full confidence with two photographers I know well, each with their own distinct style.

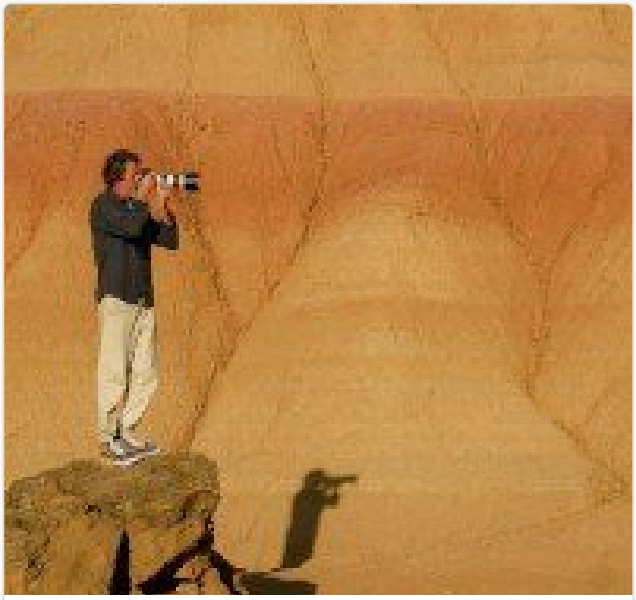
NATURAL, DOCUMENTARY STYLE

Gilles Perbal

Thirty years in the trade and over 1,000 weddings photographed across Provence and the French Riviera: Gilles captures real moments rather than staged poses.

"I won't make you pose. My job is to fade into the background... and catch the real moments: a burst of laughter, a hand held tight, a tear."

SEE HIS WORK



SENSITIVE, LIGHT-DRIVEN STYLE

Ludovic Servant

Photography built around emotion: Ludovic looks to elevate every moment through light and composition. His eye, also trained in architecture and portraiture, brings a real visual elegance to your wedding photos.

From €3,000

The price depends on the photographer chosen and the photo package selected, alongside one of my video packages. I'll put together a tailored quote with you — and with Ludovic or Gilles.
